FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEW YORK INSURANCE SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION SELECTS LIM AH TOCK AS 2013–2014 RECIPIENT

ALBANY, N.Y., Aug. 21, 2013—The New York Insurance Scholarship Foundation, Inc. (NYISF) awarded its 2013–2014 scholarship to Davy Lim Ah Tock, a senior at St. John’s University studying actuarial science.

“The New York Insurance Scholarship Foundation is delighted to award Davy with our scholarship,” Ellen Melchionni, president of NYISF said. “Davy is an extremely bright and accomplished student who is certain to find great success in the insurance profession and help advance our industry.”

NYISF was founded to encourage scholastic achievement, community involvement and a commitment to further advancing the insurance industry. “Davy embodies of all these qualities,” Melchionni said. “His academic record is outstanding, he is incredibly active in the community, and he has already gained real world experience through various internships.”

The development of future leaders is essential to ensure the viability of the insurance and risk management industry. NYISF addresses the great need to attract young professionals into the business. “Insurance and the needs of consumers grow increasingly more complex,” Melchionni said. “The cultivation of new talented leaders is critical to the future of the industry.”

The New York Insurance Scholarship Foundation, Inc. (NYISF) is a public charity initiated by the property and casualty insurance industry that supports students studying the business of insurance in New York. For more information on NYISF, visit www.nyia.org/nyisf.
